

Tyler Brand Stall
Hutton, Dominko & Swaim, PLLC, Sarasota, Florida

Tyler Stall is an attorney at Hutton, Dominko & Swaim, PLLC in Sarasota. Tyler specializes in complex business litigation. He is experienced in trial work, civil practice and arbitration. Tyler has negotiated and resolved cases in a broad range of individual and corporate disputes. He has litigated in a wide variety of legal areas, including probate, guardianship and trust matters, intellectual property, and securities fraud. Prior to joining the firm, he graduated magna cum laude from George Washington University and earned his Juris Doctorate from the Emory University School of Law. Born and raised in Sarasota, Tyler has been recognized for providing in excess of 100 hours of pro bono service by both Legal Aid of Manasota and the Florida Supreme Court. In his free time, Tyler enjoys spending time with his wife, listening to music and playing tennis.

Nader A. Amer
Carlton Fields, Miami, Florida

Nader Amer's practice mainly focuses on securities and derivative litigation, complex commercial litigation, and bankruptcy. Admitted to the bar in Florida and Delaware, Nader has experience in a wide range of business disputes, including shareholder freeze-outs, M&A litigation, state and federal securities law violations, director and officer liability, noncompetes, and general fraud and breach of contract claims. Nader also litigates on behalf of clients in the distressed asset and insolvency contexts, having represented debtors in possession, secured and unsecured lenders, insurers, directors and officers, official committees, and other parties in interest throughout Chapter 11 reorganizations and liquidations. Nader's experience spans a wide variety of industries including hospitality, pharmaceuticals, oil and gas, insurance, manufacturing, financing, and real estate. In his free time, Nader enjoys playing tennis, traveling, and spending time with his family.

Marisol Cruz
Cruz Legal, P.A., Miami, Florida

Marisol Cruz dedicates herself to Business Transactions (Contract Drafting for small businesses, Shareholder/Operating Agreements, etc); Family Law, where she often represents family-owned or small businesses that are joined as corporate third-party defendants in dissolution proceedings. As part of her family law practice, she also works as a Court-Appointed Guardian Ad Litem.

Jake Isenberg
Law Clerk to Judge Scott M. Grossman, Ft. Lauderdale, Florida

Jake Isenberg is a term law clerk to the Honorable Scott M. Grossman, United States Bankruptcy Judge for the Southern District of Florida. Jake is responsible for researching, drafting orders and opinions, reviewing order submissions, and assisting the Judge with hearing preparation. Jake graduated from University of Florida and cum laude from Emory University School of Law, where he was named as a Top Oralist in the Georgia Intrastate Moot Court Competition and was selected to compete on the Emory Nationals Moot Court Team. He also interned for the Honorable Robert A. Mark, Bankruptcy Judge sitting in Miami, FL, during law school.

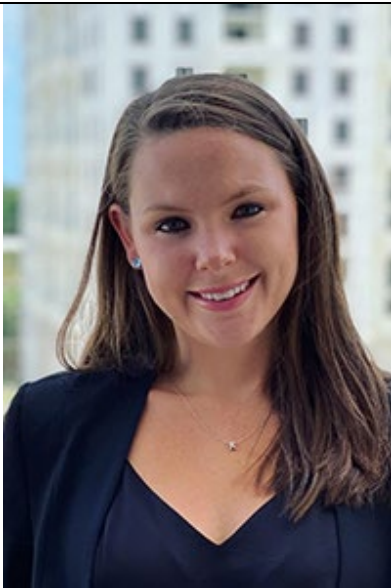

At the conclusion of his clerkship, Jake will be joining Jones Day's Miami office to practice corporate and M&A law.

Adam Gilbert
Underwood Murray, Tampa, Florida

Adam's practice focuses on the representation of both creditors and corporate debtors in all aspects of bankruptcy proceedings, with a particular emphasis on chapter 11 restructurings. Through his practice, Adam has had the opportunity to assist both debtors and creditors navigate the entirety of the bankruptcy process, including the purchase and sale of assets via § 363 sales, the successful confirmation of plans of reorganization, the prosecution and defense of claim objections, and the prosecution of various adversary proceedings. Adam also regularly represents clients in disputes involving director and officer liability, fraud, and other complex commercial disputes.

Originally from Coral Springs, Florida, Adam now resides in Tampa and enjoys cheering on the Tampa Bay Lightning and Florida Gators, exploring Tampa's restaurants, and traveling.

Kayla M. Heckman, Esq.
Law Clerk to Chief Judge Laurel M. Isicoff, Miami, Florida

Kayla Heckman is a judicial law clerk to the Honorable Laurel M. Isicoff, United States Bankruptcy Chief Judge for the Southern District of Florida. Kayla graduated magna cum laude from the University of Miami School of Law in May of 2020. She earned her bachelor's degree from Florida State University. During her first summer of law school, Kayla worked as a judicial intern for the Honorable Laurel M. Isicoff, which is where her interest in bankruptcy and commercial litigation originated. While in law school, Kayla was a member of the Charles C. Papy, Jr. Moot Court Board and Business Law Review. In her free time, Kayla enjoys working out at Orangetheory, riding her Peloton bike, and running half marathons—all to balance out her love for desserts (especially cupcakes).

Tabitha Taylor
Bryant Taylor Law, Plantation, Florida

Tabitha Taylor is a co-managing partner at Bryant Taylor Law in Plantation where she represents real estate investors and small business owners throughout Florida. She assists real estate investor clients with business formation for their real estate ventures, as well as contract drafting for vendors, tenants, and private lenders, as well as operating agreements, partnership agreements, and syndication ventures. She assists business clients with partnership dispute resolution, drafting founding documents (such as operating agreements, bylaws, and shareholder agreements), and drafting independent contractor agreements, non-compete agreements, and various contracts. She also assists with negotiating redemptions and buyouts and drafting the corresponding documents and provides business succession planning services, including business continuation plans.

Zachary Needell
Law Clerk to Judge Peter D. Russin

Zach is a Florida native, an alumnus of the University of Maryland at College Park and the Emory University School of Law, and currently serves as a judicial law clerk to The Hon. Peter D. Russin in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of Florida. Prior to joining Judge Russin's chambers, Zach clerked for The Hon. Tom Barber in the United States District Court for the Middle District of Florida and was an associate at a boutique litigation firm in South Florida specializing in professional liability. Following the conclusion of his clerkship in September 2022, Zach will be joining a South Florida-based firm's commercial and business litigation practice.