

Ian M. Corp
Agentis, PLLC, Coral Gables, Florida

Ian is an attorney with the Agentis PLLC’s litigation and dispute resolution practice group. He represents businesses and individuals in a broad range of commercial matters, including shareholder disputes (direct and derivative), commercial foreclosures, non-compete disputes, trade secret disputes, fraud, director and officer liability, debt collection, business torts, and he also represents creditors in Chapter 11 and Chapter 13 bankruptcy matters. Ian also has experience with crypto-asset, digital-asset, and blockchain disputes. He is admitted to practice in Florida, the District of Columbia, and all federal courts in Florida.

Reinaldo Gomez de la Vega
Shumaker, Loop & Kendrick, LLP, Tampa, FL

Reinaldo is an associate at Shumaker, Loop & Kendrick, LLP, where he focuses his practice on business and corporate law, with an emphasis on mergers and acquisitions and securities transactions. He additionally advises small- and medium-sized business owners in all aspects of their general corporate needs. Reinaldo completed his undergraduate studies in economics at Florida State University and earned his J.D. from Florida State University College of Law.

Outside of his legal practice, Reinaldo enjoys being out on the water, cooking and spending time with family and friends.

Valerie David
Morgan & Morgan, Orlando, FL

Valerie David is a first-generation attorney born and raised in central Florida by her mother and beloved grandmother. Drawn into law after an aptitude test, she majored in legal studies at the University of Central Florida. After graduating, Valerie spent several years working as a civil commercial and complex business litigation paralegal for De Beaubien, Knight, Simmons, Mantzaris & Neal, LLP. Valerie always knew she would eventually go to law school because of her unyielding and persistent passion for law and justice.

Valerie attended Florida A & M University College of Law in Orlando. There she served on the editorial board for the Florida A & M University Law Review as the Executive Articles Editor, received the highest-grade award in Torts II, and graduated with honors (cum laude).

Valerie Currently works as an attorney with the Business Trial Group of Morgan & Morgan, P.A. (“For the people”), specializing in commercial and complex business litigation cases on behalf of plaintiff(s) on a pure contingency basis.

When not practicing law, Valerie enjoys spending time at the lake or beach with her husband and two young children.

Kameron Fleming
Law Clerk to Judge Jacob Brown, Jacksonville, Florida

Kameron is a law clerk for Judge Jacob Brown and will be starting as an associate attorney in the litigation department of Holland & Knight in the Fall of 2023. Prior to serving the Bankruptcy Court, he worked as an associate attorney for a firm in St. Louis, Missouri named Baker Sterchi Cowden & Rice practicing defense work in insurance, medical malpractice, products liability, and railroad law. He is admitted to practice in Florida, Illinois, and Missouri. He received his undergraduate degree from Stevenson University in Maryland and his law degree from Washington University in St. Louis.

Elizabeth Brusa
Shumaker, Loop & Kendrick, LLP, Tampa, FL

Elizabeth R. Brusa is a bankruptcy, creditors' rights, and financial services attorney. Ms. Brusa began her legal career with the Department of Justice's United States Trustee Program in Chicago where she prosecuted bankruptcy fraud and abuse in civil cases. In 2018, Ms. Brusa relocated to Tampa, Florida, and joined a regional law firm. Ms. Brusa represents lenders, mortgage servicers, and other financial services businesses in state, federal, and bankruptcy court litigation. Additionally, Ms. Brusa vigorously pursues enforcement of judgments and arbitration awards by identifying and tracing assets to secure recoveries for her clients.

Prior to attending law school, Ms. Brusa worked for several years as a special education teacher in the Chicago suburbs. While not working, Ms. Brusa enjoys trying new restaurants and exploring the Tampa area with her family and friends.

Matthew Akiba
Shutts & Bowen, LLP, Miami, FL

Matthew Akiba is an associate at the Business Litigation Practice Group of Shutts & Bowen's Fort Lauderdale office. Matthew focuses his practice on complex commercial litigation including inter alia, breach of contract, fraud, breach of fiduciary duty, judicial dissolution, restrictive covenant, and aviation-related disputes. Matthew also has experience in post-judgment collections and proceedings supplementary. As a former antique, fine art, and jewelry auctioneer, Matthew has a passion for staying current on art law and intellectual property law.

Matthew graduated magna cum laude from the FIU College of Law where he served as the President of the International Law Students Association, as the Deputy Editor-in-Chief of the World Arbitration and Mediation Review, and a member of the Vis Moot team. While in law school, Matthew was a judicial intern for the Honorable Beth Bloom in the United States District Court for the Southern District of Florida, where he realized his passion for litigation.

	Matthew was born and raised in North Miami, Florida, and is a proud son to two immigrant parents from Morocco and Cuba. Having grown up in an international household of small business owners and worked for many years in the antique and art auction industry, Mr. Akiba devotes his practice to litigating both domestic and international commercial litigation disputes as well as art-related disputes. When Mr. Akiba is not in the office, he can be found bargaining for antiques at a flea market or local estate sale.
	Jacinda D. Béraud DSK Law, Orlando, FL Jacinda Béraud is an associate attorney for DSK Law Group in Orlando, Florida. She graduated from University of Florida with a Bachelors of Arts in Sociology as well as obtaining a secondary bachelors, a Bachelors of Science in Legal Studies, from National Paralegal College. Jacinda earned her Juris Doctorate from Florida A&M University’s College of Law in May 2019, and began working for DSK Law Group as an Attorney in October 2019. Her practice consists of complex business litigation and insurance defense for a large insurance company’s SIU / MCIU department. Jacinda was born in Brooklyn, New York and relocated to Florida at a young age. In her free time, Jacinda serves on the Pace Center for Girls’ Young Professional’s Board and is a mentor for Support Our Scholars. She is also a member of Paul C. Perkins Bar Association, Orange County Bar Association, and Central Florida Association for Women Lawyers / Seminole Association for Women Lawyers. Jacinda enjoys running, dancing, trying new foods, and spending time with friends, family, and her GSP- Ashlyn Mildred.
	Joseph Coleman Coleman Litigation, Naples, FL Joseph Coleman was born and raised in Naples, Florida. Joseph attended The Florida State University, where he graduated with two bachelor’s degrees, one in Music and one in Political Science, in 2012. Joseph graduated, cum laude, from The Florida State University College of Law in 2015. After passing the Florida Bar in 2015, Joseph worked at two boutique civil litigation firms in Southwest Florida, before opening his own practice in 2022. Joseph is AV-Rated by Martindale Hubbell, and Board Certified in Business Litigation by the Florida Bar. Joseph has previously served as the President of the Young Lawyer’s Section of the Collier County Bar Association. Joseph currently serves as the Secretary of the Entertainment, Arts and Sports Law Section of the Florida Bar, as President-Elect of the Lee County Young Lawyer’s Section, and Joseph currently serves on the Board of Governors for the Florida Bar Young Lawyer’s Division. Joseph recently married his spouse, Whitney Mae. In his spare time, Joseph enjoys traveling with his wife.