

Jessey Krehl
Pack Law, P.A., Miami, Florida

Jessey Krehl is a restructuring associate with Pack Law. Jessey assists clients effectively navigate everything from complex corporate chapter 11 and Subchapter V cases to individual chapter 7 liquidations. Jessey graduated magna cum laude from the University of Florida Levin College of Law in May 2020 after completing his undergraduate studies at Florida State University in astrophysics and religion. He concentrates his practice in the areas of bankruptcy, including both individual and corporate restructuring, general corporate law, foreclosure, and real estate bankruptcy and lending.

While at the University of Florida, Jessey enrolled in Advanced Bankruptcy in Professor Jeff Davis' final year teaching before his retirement from UF Law. Since then, in addition to his client work, Jessey has worked with Joe Pack, the founder of Pack Law, to revive and continue the Advanced Bankruptcy class tradition at UF of hosting leading bankruptcy practitioners and judges from around the United States to teach students, network, and enjoy beer and wings after class.

Christian Haman
Dal Lago Law, Naples, Florida

Christian Haman is an associate attorney at Dal Lago Law. He focuses his practice on bankruptcy, with an emphasis on representing actual and potential Chapter 11 parties in interest. Christian plays a pivotal role in drafting, defending, negotiating, and confirming contested plans of reorganization. He frequently helps clients compromise controversies and avoid litigation, but regularly prosecutes and defends contested matters when appropriate.

Christian is a graduate of Emory University School of Law. He is President of the Southwest Florida Bankruptcy Professionals Association, and President-Elect of the Collier County Bar Association's Young Lawyers Section. In his free time, Christian loves to visit new (and old) places with his wife.

Zohar Peleg
Freeman Mathis & Gary, LLP, Ft. Lauderdale, Florida

Zohar Peleg is an associate in the Fort Lauderdale office of Freeman Mathis & Gary, LLP, where she focuses her practice on complex commercial litigation and professional liability matters.

Zohar completed her undergraduate studies at the University of Miami and earned her law degree from the American University Washington College of Law. Following law school, Zohar served as a judicial law clerk for the Fifteenth Judicial Circuit of Florida, supporting the Palm Beach County judiciary in various areas of the law.

For the past four years, and most currently, Zohar has volunteered as a student mentor for Take Stock in Children. As a member of the Florida Association for Women Lawyers, she volunteered for the “Books & Breakfast” literacy initiative at Pace Center for Girls. Outside of her legal practice, Zohar enjoys spending time outdoors in the Florida sunshine and cooking healthy recipes for her family and friends.

Alfredo Dally
Barakat + Bossa PLLC, Miami, Florida

Alfredo Dally is an associate at Barakat + Bossa PLLC, where his practice is focused on commercial litigation. Alfredo handles matters ranging from breach of contract and non-compete agreements to business-related torts such as breach of fiduciary duty or fraud. Alfredo has experience in all aspects of litigation, including post-judgment collections.

Alfredo has a Bachelor’s Degree from Florida International University in Biology. Then, in May of 2022, Alfredo graduated Cum Laude from the University of Miami School of Law, where he served as Chairperson for the school’s Law Activity Fee Allocation Committee, President of the Technology Law Club, and Senior Notes and Comments Editor for the Business Law Review. During law school, Alfredo further participated in Miami Law’s Investors’ Rights Clinic and was a judicial intern for the late Honorable Marcia Cooke in the United States District Court for the Southern District of Florida.

Layla Nguyen
SRIPLAW, P.A., Boca Raton, Florida

Layla Nguyen is an associate attorney at SRIPLAW, P.A. Layla focuses her practice in intellectual property litigation representing businesses, artists, creators and innovators in copyright, trademark, patent disputes, including at the appellate level. In addition, Layla helps clients with business transactional matters, including drafting and negotiating agreements. Layla's goal is to solve her client's disputes as efficiently and effectively as possible so that they can focus on what is important in managing and growing their business.

Layla received her undergraduate degree from University of Florida and her law degree from St. Thomas University School of Law in Miami, Florida. In her spare time, Layla loves to travel, practice yoga and spend time with her fiancé and their two cats.

Rasheed K. Nader
Kozyak Tropin & Throckmorton, Miami, Florida

Rasheed K. Nader is an attorney at Kozyak Tropin & Throckmorton committed to providing exceptional legal representation to clients in complex litigation matters, class actions, and high-stakes cases that can have a significant impact on their businesses.

Rasheed received his Bachelor of Arts in Philosophy from Florida International University. He then earned his Juris Doctor, magna cum laude, from Florida International University College of Law. After law school, Rasheed served as a judicial law clerk for the Honorable Robert J. Luck at the Florida Supreme Court and the United States Court of Appeals for the Eleventh Circuit. He also worked at a plaintiffs' boutique firm in Miami, where he litigated claims involving aviation disasters, product defects, business torts, and contract disputes.

In addition to zealously representing his clients at KTT, Rasheed serves as an Adjunct Professor at FIU Law, where he shares his passion for the law by teaching legal writing to second- and third-year law students.

Samantha V. Medina
Gunster, Orlando, Florida

Samantha Medina is an associate at Gunster, focusing on Business Litigation with an emphasis on eDiscovery. Through ambition and discipline, she aims to serve a range of clients through their challenging times. Samantha represents clients across numerous industry sectors at all stages of litigation. Samantha is also a go-getter in the firm's eDiscovery practice group, managing the demands which come along with complex commercial litigation cases nationwide.

After graduating from The University of Central Florida, Samantha earned her Juris Doctorate from The University of Tennessee College of Law. Samantha has also placed a focus on diving into unique work experiences. She has previously worked within the legal division of a Fortune 500 insurance company and at Y-12, one of only two nuclear security facilities in the country established in the 'Secret City' during the formation of the Manhattan project. To sharpen her litigation skills, Samantha also interned with the State Attorney's Office of Broward County within their juvenile division.

As a Florida native, Samantha enjoys being out on the ocean, visiting Florida's theme parks and discovering local restaurants.

Marshall Kobrin
Aegis Law, Tampa, Florida

Marshall Kobrin is an attorney with AEGIS Law, specializing in mergers and acquisitions, corporate transactions, and intellectual property matters, in addition to addressing the diverse corporate needs of his clients. His areas of practice include representing start-ups with respect to entity choice and formation, trademark and copyright prosecution, business acquisitions, and other corporate legal matters. He is a member of the Florida Bar, the American Bar Association, the Hillsborough County Bar Association, and the Sports Lawyers Association.

Marshall earned his Bachelor of Arts degree in political science from the University of Central Florida in 2014 while also completing minors in general business, sports business management, and legal studies. He went on to attend the University of Florida Levin College of Law, where he earned his Juris Doctor degree cum laude in 2017 with a certificate in intellectual property.

Prior to entering private practice, Marshall gained experience in the legal field through internships with the Florida First District Court of Appeal and the Florida Ninth Judicial Circuit Court.

In addition to his legal work, Marshall has a passion for sports. He has served as a student equipment manager for the University of Central Florida football team and was appointed to the University of Florida Intercollegiate Athletic Committee during his time in law school. Outside of the office, Marshall cherishes spending time with his wife and two children.