

Who We Are

Florida Community Development Legal (FCDL) is a statewide collaborative of legal aid organizations, led by Legal Services of Greater Miami, that provide free transactional legal assistance to qualifying small businesses and nonprofit organizations.

FLORIDA
COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT
LEGAL PROJECT

Who We Serve

Our clients are low to medium income small businesses/entrepreneurs and nonprofit organizations that serve and support low to medium income neighborhoods.

What We Do

Our services include:

- Small Business Formation - Choice of entity, incorporation, corporate governance
- Nonprofit Formation - Incorporation, 501(c)(3) tax exemption, corporate governance, compliance
- General Business Matters - business contracts and negotiations, financial transactions, employment and independent contractors, intellectual property, licenses
- Real Estate - affordable housing projects, conveyances, mortgages, title issues, commercial leases
- Education - board training, corporate governance, business negotiations, best practices, compliance
- Legal Checkup - Have no specific legal issue? Apply for a general legal checkup

Free Resources

Visit us at <https://flcommunitydevelopment.org/small-business-and-nonprofit-guide/> for free legal guides and videos on a variety of Small Business and Nonprofit issues.

How to Apply

You can apply for services through our online portal at FlCommunityDevelopment.org. Click on the “Apply for Services” button and one of our legal specialists will contact you.

Florida Community Development Legal is not a law firm, but a statewide collaboration among several nonprofit legal aid providers supporting community economic development activities. If your small business or non-profit corporation is eligible to become a client, you or your organization would become a client of one of the foregoing legal aid providers.

