

Garrison Cohen
Holland & Knight LLP, Orlando, Florida

Garrison Cohen is a litigation attorney in Holland & Knight's Orlando office, where he focuses on commercial and complex business litigation. Garrison represents clients in all stages of litigation from case initiation, jury trials and appeals, and covers a variety of legal issues in a diversity of jurisdictions.

Garrison has experience representing clients in business-to-business litigation such as business torts, breach of contract claims, shareholder disputes, fiduciary duty claims, commercial real estate litigation, non-competition and restrictive covenant litigation and construction-related matters. He also represents clients in class action defense cases, labor and employment litigation cases, and consumer defense matters. Garrison's clients span a variety of industries such as real estate, financial services, construction, education, communications, transportation, insurance, and aviation.

Garrison earned his Bachelor of Sciences degree in Legal Studies from the University of Central Florida in 2014, with a Minor in Business Administration. He went on to attend the University of Florida Levin College of Law, where he earned his Juris Doctor degree cum laude in 2017.

In addition to his legal practice, Garrison is actively involved in his community. He has served on the University of Central Florida Greater Orlando Knights Community Council since 2022 and is actively involved with a variety of local professional and nonprofit organizations.

Jennifer Hernandez
Continental PLLC, Coral Gables, Florida

Jennifer Hernandez is a senior associate at Continental PLLC. She focuses her practice on complex commercial litigation, and specializes in cases with an international component. Jennifer has experience with international arbitrations and has handled complex business disputes in both state and federal courts across the country. Fluent in Spanish, Jennifer has also prepared filings in Spanish on behalf of Latin American clients in proceedings administered by the American Arbitration Association, the International Centre for Dispute Resolution, and the Center of Conciliation and Arbitration in Panama.

Jennifer is a proud double Gator. During her time at the University of Florida Levin College of Law, she was a member of the Florida Moot Court Team and an Editor for the University of Florida Journal of Law and Public Policy.

Outside of the law, Jennifer is a voracious reader, loves practicing yoga and Pilates, and is always trying new restaurants in her hometown of Miami.

Ian Johnson
Losey PLLC, Orlando, Florida

Ian is an attorney at Losey PLLC. His practice covers a variety of intellectual property and business law matters. Ian advises clients across industries on management, growth, commercialization, and protection of their intellectual property assets. He also has substantial transaction experience spanning from startup formation through funding, operational, and M&A or other exit transactions. As a former entrepreneur, Ian is particularly passionate about working with early stage and emerging companies, helping them solve the often complex and novel legal issues they face.

Ian received his undergraduate degree in engineering from Purdue University and his J.D. from the University of Florida. In his free time he enjoys lifting weights, playing the piano, and travelling with his wife.

Emmanuelle Litvinov
The Entrepreneur Lawyers, Fort Lauderdale, Florida

Emmanuelle Subar Litvinov, Esq. is your go-to outside "in-house" legal advisor with a focus on mergers and acquisitions, private securities offerings, and the legal needs that arise in the daily life cycle of a business—from formation to exit. Emmanuelle partners with entrepreneurs and business owners to help them build, grow, and protect what they've worked hard to create.

Emmanuelle brings a strategic and solutions-oriented mindset to every deal and decision. She regularly counsels clients through complex M&A transactions, equity financings, partnership structuring, contract negotiation, and regulatory compliance. Whether guiding a founder through their first capital raise or advising an established company on a multi-million-dollar acquisition, Emmanuelle approaches each matter with clarity, precision, and a deep understanding of business dynamics. Her clients range from early-stage startups to mature businesses across a variety of industries, including technology, manufacturing, professional services, health and wellness, and real estate. She regularly serves as outside general counsel, helping businesses navigate legal risks while supporting long-term growth and operational success.

Raised in a three-generation family business located in Michigan, Emmanuelle developed a deep appreciation for entrepreneurship, perseverance, and the unique challenges faced by small and growing companies. This background fuels her passion for helping business owners navigate legal complexities while building something meaningful.

Beyond her legal practice, Emmanuelle is active on several local boards and is passionate about contributing to the South Florida community. She also enjoys working out, including running half marathons, attending Broadway shows, and spending quality time with her family. Emmanuelle is fluent in English and Hebrew and holds dual citizenship in the United States and Israel.

Luigi Orengo, Jr.
Carlton Fields, P.A., Tampa, Florida

Luigi Orengo, Jr. is an attorney in the Tampa office of Carlton Fields, P.A. Luigi represents clients in complex bankruptcy and insolvency litigation in Florida and New York. His practice focuses on adversary proceedings, contested matters, and bankruptcy-related commercial disputes, including fraudulent transfer claims, nondischargeability actions, and challenges to claim priority and lien validity. He has litigated matters involving stay relief, cash collateral, adequate protection, and objections to confirmation, and routinely advises secured and unsecured creditors, lenders, and asset purchasers navigating distressed situations. He also has experience pursuing and defending appeals arising out of bankruptcy court rulings, and frequently assists institutional clients with judgment enforcement and recovery strategies in bankruptcy and post-judgment contexts.

Luigi completed his undergraduate studies at the University of South Florida and earned his law degree from the Howard University School of Law. Outside of work, Luigi enjoys spending time with his wife and kids, playing recreational sports, listening to culture debates, and is a lifetime member of the #BillsMafia.

Benjamin Taylor
BakerHostetler, Orlando, Florida

Ben Taylor is a bankruptcy and restructuring associate at BakerHostetler. Ben represents debtors, creditors, asset sellers, and asset purchasers in commercial bankruptcy and financial restructuring matters throughout the United States.

Ben received his Bachelor of Arts in Political Science and his Bachelor of Science in Business Finance from the University of Florida. He then earned his Juris Doctor, magna cum laude, from the Florida State University College of Law. After law school, Ben served as a judicial law clerk for the Honorable Karen S. Jennemann at the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Middle District of Florida, Orlando Division. He also worked at a local law firm in Orlando, Florida, representing parties in loan workouts and commercial disputes, as well as Subchapter V debtors throughout Florida.

Ben is a Florida native with a passion for the Florida Gators. In his spare time, Ben enjoys traveling, spending time outdoors, and trying new restaurants and cocktail bars.